CHIN NAMED STATE JUDGE FOR NATIONAL WRITING PROGRAM

For the second year, Beverly Ann Chin, assistant professor of English at the University of Montana, has been named a judge for Montana for the 1983 Achievement Awards in Writing Program of the National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE).

The national competition, in its 25th year, annually cites about 800 high school seniors for excellence in writing and recommends them to colleges and universities for admissions and, if needed, financial aid.

Students are nominated for the awards by their high school English teachers and chosen for recognition by state judges.

Chin is recording secretary for the NCTE Conference on English Education. The NCTE is made up of more than 100,000 individual teachers and institutional members at all levels of instruction, from elementary through graduate school.
